Visit Sanford and Lee County

With plenty of seasonal events happening in Sanford and Lee County, fall is one of the best times of the year to come for a visit.

Boo & Brew Ghost Tour - Oct. 16 - Nov. 1

There's nothing quite like a spooky tale on a crisp autumn night and downtown Sanford has one for the ages! Join a haunted pub crawl that includes popular spots like Smoke and Barrel, Libations 139, Hugger Mugger Brewing Company and more. As you travel from stop to stop enjoying beverages, you'll hear the tale of Lee McIver whose ghost haunts the historic Lee Furniture building. The event is sponsored by Visit Sanford, Downtown Sanford Inc., and City of Sanford Appearance Commission. Participation is free, but crawlers must pay for their drinks. Boo & Brew is a self-guided ghost tour.

Gross Farms Corn Maze & Pumpkin Patch

Gross Farms boasts the largest corn maze in Lee County which offers visitors and residents hours of head-scratching, brain-teasing entertainment. And if that isn't enough fun, there's always picking the perfect pumpkins for fall. Select gorgeous gourds of all shapes, sizes and even various colors. You can also buy pumpkins at the Sanford Farmers' Market starting in October as well as at BMER Market.

Turkey Shoots - Nov. 6 - Nov. 28

Set this trapshooting event, held Fridays and Saturdays at Lemon Springs Community Park, squarely in your sights. Contestants can try their luck at winning a variety of prizes ranging from pork chops to a Remington shot gun. Ammo is provided as well as a house gun for use. All proceeds go toward the development of the community park.

Holiday Open House - Nov. 8

Kick off the holiday shopping season by taking advantage of great sales, deals, promotions, specials and free refreshments at retail businesses all across Sanford and Lee County. Eat, drink and be merry while easily checking items off your holiday gift-giving list.

Second Saturdays Holiday Market - Nov. 14

Visit an array of local galleries, boutiques and specialty shops for one-of-a-kind holiday presents from chocolates to clothing. Best of all, grab yourself a Holiday Punch Card, fill it out by visiting and purchasing at local retail stores, and be entered in regular drawings to win fantastic prizes.

Small Business Saturday - Nov. 28

Come and shop local to support all the small businesses that make downtown Sanford and Lee County really shine. Experience the kind of warm hospitality from local shop owners that will keep you in the holiday spirit all season long.

Christmas Tree Farms

As fall slips into winter, round out the season on the hunt for the most spectacular Christmas trees. Luckily, the Sanford and Lee County area has two great spots to choose from. Head over to The Christmas Tree Patch for a fine selection including pine, cypress and juniper trees. You can also check out Griffin Evergreens for pre-cut Fraser firs, hand-made wreaths and tree stands.
