HARVEST HOST OFFERS THE BEST OF FARM LIFE

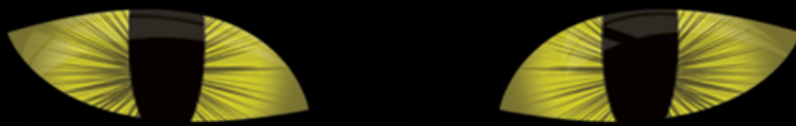

Gross Farms has long established itself as a destination for picking the perfect pumpkin, getting lost in a corn maze, and taking a nostalgic hay ride around a beautiful farm, but in a year when most people rethought their business model by scaling back and making do with more, John and Tina Gross bought 100 additional acres and planned a major festival.

Enter Wampus Cat Fest, a three-day event featuring a rock stage and a country stage and hosting the likes of Everclear, Lit, The Swon Brothers, and Thompson Square. Indie On Air, who brought Sanford a very successful Carolina Indie Fest in 2021, are back bigger and better with both Carolina Indie Fest and Wampus Cat.

Add to all the hoopla, strawberries, live music, and becoming a Harvest Host in 2022, and you definitely want to see what all the fuss on the farm is about this year!
